Metro Wood Carvers, Chapter of the Minnesota Wood Carvers Association

The Minnesota Woodcarvers Association is a nonprofit organization founded in 1965 and incorporated under the laws of Minnesota as such.

MWCA's purpose is to promote the art of woodcarving, encourage exhibitions and workshops, provide fellowship among members, and assist members in finding tools, supplies and other resources.

Our goal is to promote activities that aid beginning to advanced carvers in the growth and development of their carving ability. The MWCA membership includes carvers of all levels of experience and ability. Our members are our greatest resource.
